Levanto è un letto semplice, leggero, con una struttura di legno rifinita da intarsi in pelle.

Il suo nome è tratto da quello di una cittadina delle Cinque Terre di Liguria: una cornice di monti alle spalle, la grande distesa piana del mare di fronte. La testiera di Levanto ha questa vocazione, far da spalliera con la sua solida struttura in compensato curvato, modellata a settori, fasciata in pelle sul dorso.

Questo guscio accoglie al suo interno l'imbottitura, che disegna una linea curva che idealmente accoglie in appoggio la schiena e la avvolge.

Levanto is a simple, light bed with a wooden structure finished with leather inlays.

Its name comes from a town in Cinque Terre, Liguria: with a mountainous frame behind, and the large flat expanse of the sea in front. The headboard of Levanto has this vocation, to act as a backrest with its solid structure in curved plywood, shaped in sections and wrapped in leather on the back.

This shell accommodates the padding, which draws a curved line that ideally welcomes and wraps the backside for support.
