

urbino

Il tavolo Urbino sono idealmente dei ponti, e così sono strutturati.

Le due gambe che fanno da appoggio sono collegate e agganciate al piano che si slancia tra l'una e l'altra come una pensilina, un ponte.

Il piano può essere di legno, rivestito in pelle o cuoio o marmo. Le gambe in metallo verniciato.

The Urbino table ideally represents a bridge, and it's structured like one.

The two legs that act as a support are connected and hooked to the surface that soars between one and the other like a canopy, a bridge.

The top can be made of wood, covered in leather or cowhide or marble. Legs are made of painted metal.
